

REJUVENATE THIS RAMADAN

Clean, tone, exfoliate and moisturise your skin when you are fasting. Don't forget to rehydrate after iftar, we recommend you drink at least eight glasses of water in addition to any other fluids between iftar and suhoor

Ramadan ready

Embellished sleeves, laser cut fabrics and embroidered edges, dressing modestly doesn't mean you can't be stylish. We sifted through some local talent to choose the trendiest picks of the season

« THE PEPLUM »

What is it:

Made with a blend of fabrics, covers the arms and waist down while the peplum skirt is made of a thicker fabric blend that gives you the perfect structured look.

How to wear it:

Ideal for an iftar celebration or a formal dinner, wear this style with a delicate necklace or chandelier earrings.

Available at: Arab Fashions, Qurm

» THE PEASANT «

What is it:

A favourite in Oman, this style often comes with a draw-string waist with intricate details like rope braids, lace edges and studded shoulder pads.

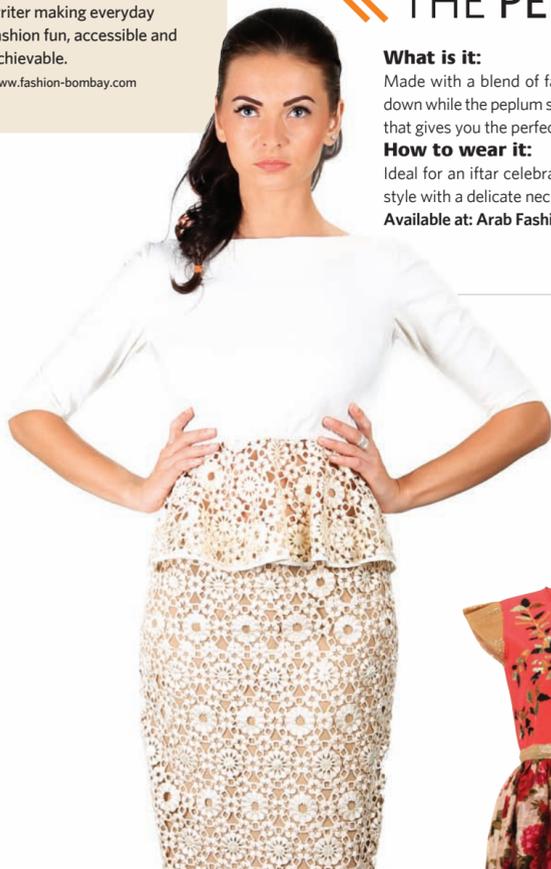

How to wear it:

Tie the belt comfortably loose or alternatively you can also sew it on either side to avoid it cinching on the waist.
